COLUMBARIUM RULES AND REGULATIONS

These are the rules and regulations for the Riverside Cemetery Columbarium located in Crete, Nebraska. These rules are subject to change, addition, or revision as deemed necessary by the Cemetery Board.

Definitions:

Columbarium: A structure with niches (small spaces) for placing cremated remains in urns or other approved containers.

Cremains: Cremated remains.

Inurnment: The placing of cremated remains in an urn followed by placement in a niche or some other resting location.

1. NICHE USE: Columbarium Niches are used solely for human cremated remains. Pet cremated remains are prohibited. Valuables, mementos, etc. will be allowed but must be placed within the urn prior to inurnment.
2. INURNMENT: Inurnment will be conducted by an approved cemetery official ONLY. Urns where the inurnment was conducted by anyone other than an approved cemetery official are not allowed to be placed within a Riverside Cemetery Columbarium niche.
3. NICHE AND URN SIZES: Each niche is 11"x11"x11". Each niche may contain up to two (2) urns.
 - a. Niches with one urn: the urn shall be no larger than 10"x10"x10".
 - b. Niches with two urns: each urn shall be no larger than 5" W x 10" L x 5.438" H
4. NICHE OPENING AND CLOSING:
 - a. Weekdays: the opening/closing is included in the price of the Columbarium niche.
 - b. Saturdays: there is an additional charge for Saturday opening/closing.
5. ENGRAVING REQUIREMENTS: Each niche is required to be engraved with Name, Date of Birth, and Date of Death. Speidell Monuments is the only company allowed to do the engraving on the niche. Charges for engraving will be determined by Speidell at the time of engraving.
6. PLACEMENT OF FLOWER BOUQUETS, POTTED PLANTS, WREATHS, ETC. All flowers, plants, wreaths, mementos, or other ornamentation in the Columbarium and surrounding gardens is prohibited except during inurnment services. All items must be removed immediately following the service unless pre-approved by cemetery officials.
7. LANDSCAPING: All landscaping including the planting of trees, shrubs, and flowers around the Columbarium will be done by cemetery officials only.
